

PRINCIPIA COLLEGE

President

Principia College is the only institution of higher education in the world providing an excellent liberal arts education in the context of the values of universal love and moral integrity as found in Christian Science. College admissions and enrollment is open to students of all faiths and to nonbelievers. The College now seeks a new President to lead it forward into an era of increasing impact, prosperity, and positive change.

Principia College, located on a 2,600-acre setting 40 minutes from urban St. Louis, has 74 instructional faculty, 74% of whom have terminal degrees and 87% of whom are full-time. They educate a student body currently numbering approximately 320 in an environment that is exceptionally focused on student success. The College has a goal of increasing enrollment to over 500 students by 2028. Within a framework of the liberal arts, the College offers 28 majors in the humanities, social sciences, arts, and math and natural sciences. The College's student body includes a rich international diversity. Nearly 40 percent of students are international, coming from 31 different countries across six continents.

The College is one of two campuses operating under the Principia umbrella. There are close ties between Principia College and Principia School, a day and boarding school which serves preschool through grade 12, and 34 percent of students who graduate from the School matriculate at the College. The President reports to Principia's Chief Executive. Principia's Board of Trustees provides governance and is accountable for the fiduciary health of Principia, including oversight of Principia's approximately $800 million endowment.

Salary will be competitive and commensurate with experience, including an excellent benefits package.

Screening of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. The preferred start date is summer 2023. We encourage applicants to inquire immediately and submit applications by March 24, 2023. For best consideration, please send all nominations, inquiries, and applications in confidence to:
